unnaturally green – Clare Holman-Hobbs

The colour green soon became the colour of the gentry, as red represented nobility and brown and grey represented peasants. This is why the seats in the House of Commons are green and red in the House of Lords. The green costume of da Vinci 's Mona Lisa (c.1503-06) shows that she was a member of the gentry. Hans Holbein 's The Ambassadors (1533), a painting portraying two powerful-looking ...
